

Lisa Mauri Thomas has been at Dunwoody College of Technology in Minneapolis, MN since 1999. Lisa has earned her degrees from St. Cloud State University; M.S. Applied Counseling, Vocational Counseling emphasis (1998) and B.A. Sociology (1994). She began her Dunwoody career as an adjunct faculty member then helped to establish the Web-Based Learning department in 2003 to facilitate the development of and application of best practices in web-based courses within the general education offerings. In 2003-2004, she assisted the Human Resources department in establishing a Leadership Development Program at Dunwoody. In 2003, she also completed the 14-month, 102 hour Management and Leadership Certificate through Carlson School of Management's EES department. In 2004, she took on the position of Student Records Manager and was promoted to Director of Student Life and Career Services, Registrar in August 2005. A desired goal is to earn an Ed.D. in Educational Administration in order to advance within higher education. Prior to Dunwoody, Lisa worked in the private sector in the human resources field for 10 years. Lisa has one daughter, Aidan.